- BAPTISM CLASSES - Spanish Class - Class will be June 25 at 6:00pm in Columbus Hall. English Classes - Classes will be July 20 and July 27 at 6:00pm in Thomas Hall.

- Young Adult/Teen Group - "Theology of the Body" study group will meet every Wednesday from 7:00pm - 8:30pm in the Youth Room. They will be studying with a series by Jason and Crystilina Everret. Pizza and drinks will be served. Call Annie at 934-4815 for more information. This will be led by Pat Klekas.

★ VBS for Adults - Each summer we have a vacation bible school for children. Why can't we have something similar (without the crafts, but with snacks) for adults. So for four -1½ hr. sessions (July 25, Aug. 1, 8 & 15)) we will wrestle with the word of God. The course will be: A (very) short introduction on the New Testament. So on the 400th year of the KJV, let us try to listen more deeply to the consoling and challenging word of God. - Fr. Hermes ★ NEEDED: Work schedule changing. Need someone to cover the 2:00pm - 3:00pm Adoration hour. Please contact Parish office as soon as possible if you could do this hour weekly.

Mission Appeal Today

Today we have a visiting diocesan priest from The Society of St. James who will give us some insight into the state of the missions in South America. The Society, founded by Cardinal Cushing in 1958, has about forty members serving in Peru and Ecuador. Each year a few of the members come north to spread the word about their missionary work and to appeal for donations. Please be as generous as your means allow to help those less fortunate. For more information on the Society of St. James visit their website: www.socstjames.com

Dear Members of St. Joseph's Parish:

There have always been two views of the Church - one exclusive, the other inclusive. The exclusive view holds that the Church is for good people, for the fully committed. In the inclusive view, the Church must be open to all, to saints and sinners.

For some, the presence of sinners in the Church is a cause of scandal. If they had their way, only saints would be admitted. The issue of sinners in the Church was a big one for the early Church in the years following Christ's Ascension. Some were for weeding sinners out. But others turned to the example of Jesus for guidance. Not only did he not exclude sinners, he welcomed them. He declared that he had come, not to call the just, but sinners to repentance. Today's Gospel parable about the field in which wheat and weeds grow together until the harvest was a response to this very question.

Human beings are complex. They can't be divided into the good and the bad, as though they were two completely separate classes of people. There is no line you can draw which would neatly separate the good from the bad. Any such line would go right through each human heart, for there is good and evil in every heart.

All of us are a mixture of good and bad. The people we call 'good' may have terrible things in them, and so-called 'bad' people may have in them sorrow, repentance, pity and sacrifice.

The Church can do no better than to imitate its Founder. Isn't it strange that He who had no trace of weed in him could be so understanding towards those who failed to measure up? Why didn't he weed out Judas? And why didn't he weed out Peter? He saw the weeds in Peter's life, but he saw the wheat too. He knew that with encouragement the wheat would prevail. And it did.

A Church that admitted only saints would make about as much sense as a hospital that admitted only people who are well, or a repair shop that accepted only things that work. The Church is not a museum for saints, but a school for sinners. God bless, Father Dan

New Corner

NEW PRAYERS, SAME MASS

Beginning with the First Sunday of Advent in 2011, Catholics around the U.S. will worship using the new English translation of the Roman Missal, Third Edition. We will use this corner to try to cover the small changes before actual use begins.

Present Text

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do;
and I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God

Priest: Lord, we have sinned against you: Lord, have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Lord, show us your mercy and love.

People: And grant us your salvation.

New Text

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do;
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.

People: For we have sinned against you.

Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

People: And grant us your salvation.
