Choose Life - "Society is always attempting to make the physician into a killer - to kill the defective child at birth, to leave the sleeping pills beside the bed of a cancer patient. It is the duty of society to protect the physician from such requests." Margaret Meade, NRL News, 9/09 (For all those working to restore the Culture of Life, that their actions may be rooted in prayer, we pray...)

Your prayers are needed for the recovery of the following people.

THE 2011 ST. JOSEPH'S PARISH TUITION ASSISTANCE AWARD

The award recipient this year is MARISSA TOMPKINS, daughter of Nick and Jana Tompkins. Upon graduation Marissa will attend Marquette, the prestigious Jesuit University, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The award is funded by donations from parishioners, and was initiated to support applicants attending Catholic institutions. Congratulations to Marissa, and to each and every one of our graduating seniors this year. We wish all of you a blessed and joyful future as you enter this next exciting phase of your young lives.

Dear Members of St. Joseph's Parish,

In his book, The Transforming Friendship, Leslie Weatherhead passes on to us a lovely story of an old Scotsman who, when he was very ill, was visited by his pastor. As the pastor sat down on a chair by the bedside, he noticed on the other side of the bed another chair placed at such an angle as to suggest that a visitor had just left. "Well, Donald," said the pastor, glancing at the chair, "I see I am not your first visitor." The old Scotsman looked up in surprise, so the minister pointed to the chair. "Ah," said the sick man, "I'll tell you about that chair. Years ago I found it impossible to pray. I often fell asleep on my knees, I was so tired. And if I kept awake, I could not control my thoughts from wandering. One day I was so worried I spoke to the pastor about it. He told me not to worry about kneeling down. "Just sit down," he said, "and put a chair opposite you. Imagine that Jesus is in it, and talk to Him as you would to a friend." Then the Scotsman added, "And I have been doing that ever since." A week later the daughter of the old man drove up to the pastor's office and knocked. She was shown into his study, and when the minister came, she said quietly, "Father died in the night. I had no idea the end was so near. I had just gone to lie down for an hour or two. He seemed to be sleeping so comfortably. When I discovered that he was gone, he hadn't moved since I last saw him, EXCEPT THAT HIS HAND WAS OUT ON THE EMPTY CHAIR AT THE SIDE OF HIS BED."

In today's gospel Jesus says: "And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be."

A highly important ministry in our parish is spiritual support of the sick and the homebound. If there is a homebound person who presently is not being visited, or receiving Holy Communion on Sundays, please let us know. Also, if there is anyone who is seriously ill, at home or in the hospital, or getting ready for surgery, that person should receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. A reminder also that on the first Sunday of each month we offer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick following each Mass.
God bless, Father Dan

Each year, all priests of the Reno diocese gather with their bishop for their annual retreat. This year the retreat will be on May 23-27 at the Passionist Fathers Retreat Center, Citrus Heights, CA. All priests are required to be present, unless excused by the bishop. Fr. Dan and Fr. Hermes will be in attendance, departing Elko following the Sunday Masses today.

I am happy to announce that our priest friend from Dublin, Ireland, Fr. Noel Campbell, will be in Elko for the duration of the retreat, and will celebrate the weekday Masses as well as manning the office. Fr. Noel was here for my Silver Jubilee, so many of you have met him.

I am certain that Fr. Noel would be very happy if some were to invite him out to eat, or to take him to visit some of the local places of interest. He can be contacted at the parish office, 738-6432
