Dear Members of St. Joseph's Parish Community:

November is the "month of the dead" in our Catholic tradition. We begin the month celebrating All Saints Day and All Souls Day, and we continue to be mindful of our dearly departed during the rest of the month.

This might be a good time also to remind ourselves of the Catholic Church's unique teaching on Purgatory and prayer for the dead. We can read the official teaching in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1030), defining purgatory as "a purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven," which is experienced by those "who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified."

The Book of Revelation (21:27) teaches that nothing unclean will enter the presence of God, so though we might die without mortal sin, there may still be impurities in us that would be "taken care of" in Purgatory.

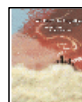

We also believe in two judgments, the one that happens immediately after we die, and in the General Judgment, spoken of in the gospel of Matthew (25:31-32). "It is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgment" (Hebrews 9:27).

When we pray the Apostles' Creed, we state that we believe in the communion of saints. In that short statement we are speaking of that chain of prayer that connects us, the living, with those in Purgatory, and of course, with the saints in Heaven. In the Eucharistic Prayer of each Mass we offer prayers for the dead. It is also a common practice to have a particular Mass dedicated to the prayerful memory of our dead. Remember, all the dead are included in the prayers of the Mass, but we are allowed to remember our own particular deceased, perhaps a family member or friend who has passed away.

A reminder that our "countdown" to using the new Roman Missal continues, and we officially begin saying the new Mass prayers on November 26/27, the First Sunday of Advent. The new missalette will have the new responses of course, but you will be glad also to have the pew cards available. The handout in this bulletin is one more explanation of the new prayers. You might want to look it over as we prepare for the change. God bless, Father Dan

ARE YOU READY FOR IRELAND?

The brochures for our June 14 to 23, 2012 Spiritual and Cultural Journey to Ireland are here! You are welcome to pick up your free brochure in the parish office. You may also download the complete brochure and application form on your computer: www.GoCatholicTravel.com/GoIreland

Enter to win a TREAT if you register early (by November 23) for the annual Diocese of Reno Conference, January 13-14 at the Nugget in Sparks. Workshops regarding Catholic Family Life & Challenges to Catholic Parenting are central to our Conference offerings this coming year. For more information go to <http://www.dioceseofreno.org> and click on Annual Diocesan Conference (green box) or call Breanna at 326-9434 or Sister Maxine at 326-9440.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development 2nd Collection November 19-20

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). CCHD was founded by the U.S. bishops, who recognized that the lives of those in need will not improve until the systems and policies that keep people in poverty change. For over 40 years, CCHD has funded community groups that create lasting change. Help fight poverty in America and defend human dignity.

Give generously to the CCHD Collection. Thank You!

Jr. Rosary Club

An organizational meeting for the Queen of Peace Junior Rosary Makes of Spring Creek will be held after the 4:00pm Mass on November 6th at Our Lady of the Rubies in Spring Creek. Any child over the age of 8 and their parent who want to make rosaries are encouraged to attend the meeting. For further details, contact Carol Morgan at 340-8499
