

Simply Ducky – May 20-23, 2010

Into Each Life, A Little Rain Must Fall

What do you do when you're camping at one of the prettiest RV parks in the state – Mallard Creek RV Park – and it keeps raining? You read some books, play games, catch up on your sleep, and make the most of it! But when the sun comes out, you enjoy the scenery, golf, and visit with friends.

Just one of the many pleasant scenes around the campground that John S captured with his camera.

A downpour on the freeway didn't stop the RAT Pack from arriving as planned on Thursday – Al & Rose, Dale & Pauline, Dan & Sue, Dennis & Jan, Frank & Dianne, George & Candy, Gordon & Gloria, Jerry & Michele, and Terry & Judy with their guest Cliff. Dinner was enjoyed in the rigs by some and at Bing's in Lebanon for the rest. Games followed in the clubhouse.

Just when we thought the worst was over, we'd look to the southwest and hote the dark clouds on the horizon.

Friday found many trying to escape the rain at WalMart. Others caught up on their reading or worked on crafts. Jeff & Connie and John & Elaine joined our happy group Friday afternoon. Dinner was in the golf course club house restaurant with games following.

Saturday – Golf, Crafts, and a Little Sun

Saturday brought a little less rain so that John S & Gordon got in 18 holes of golf. Meanwhile, the men and women worked on some crafts. The ladies produced some magnets to decorate their RVs and the men worked on a game to help pass away the hours. The sun came out bright and shiny in the afternoon and we thought maybe the worst was over. But before we knew it, the rain was pouring down again.

Saturday potluck centered around some gourmet spaghetti with all the trimmings. Jerry & Paula drove down to join us for the afternoon and evening. After the traditional business meeting, the cards, dominoes, and other games came out for more spirited games.

Crafts were the order-of-the-day Saturday morning. The ladies made magnet decorations and painted rocks while the men made a classic peg-jump game.

Several of the rocks that some of the ladies painted. Who knew those dull, grey rocks really contained a jack-o-lantern and a cat!

All Good Things Must Come To An End!

Sunday brunch is anticipated by all and we weren't disappointed this time either! We all enjoyed the waffles, egg dishes, fruit, pastry, and more. Fearing more rain, we quickly packed up and headed for home with anticipation of a sunnier and dryer campout the end of June at Casey's Riverside RV Park. After all, summer is on the way with some sun, isn't it?

Classic RV Club Business Meeting – May 2010

Meeting was called to order at 6:37pm by Club Vice President Jerry K in the absence of President Joe followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Jerry reported that 11 rigs with 24 members, and 1 guest were in attendance.

Dale read the minutes of the last meeting; there were no corrections to the minutes as read.

John S gave the treasurer's report – see the detailed report elsewhere in this newsletter. There were no corrections to the report as presented.

Old business – Donations for Afghanistan: Items collected to be given to Joe & Judie for forwarding.

Old business – Pendleton Roundup: All RV parks in Pendleton area require a minimum one-week stay. As a result there was limited continued interest and the idea was dropped.

New business – Nominating Committee report: Jerry K reported that the Nominating Committee had filled the 2010 slate of officers as Sue accepted the nomination for Vice President. Members may still make additional nominations for Vice President or Treasurer; contact Jerry, Dan, or Rose.

May birthdays: Dale 8th, Jan 14th, Carmen 26th, Candy 27th

Medical updates: Future medical updates will be reported as they occur via the email/phone tree.

Next outing: Dianne discussed the next outing to be held at Casey's Riverside RV Park June 24-27; see details elsewhere in this newsletter and the accompanying promo sheet.

Jerry thanked our hosts, Al & Rose, for another great outing. Meeting was adjourned at 7:04pm.

Rose, Jan, and Judy enjoy a game of chicken foot.

While across the room, Dale, Sue, Michele (hidden), and Gordon battle it out over hand and foot while Gloria looks on.

Dianne was identified as the Mystery Person for this campout.

Welcome Jeff and Connie who joined the club at our Christmas Brunch.

NOTE: Limited space prevents us from showing all the pictures from this campout; check out the Photo Gallery on the club website for additional pictures – www.classicRVclub.org/Gallery.html.
