

WESTONKA HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

August, 1985

Vol. 7, No. 6

AUGUST 19TH MEETING AT LIBRARY

Russell W. Fridley, Director of the Minnesota Historical Society, will be the guest speaker at our meeting on August 19th.

The subject of Mr. Fridley's talk will be "The Many Faces of Minnesota."

The meeting will begin at 7:00 p.m. at the Westonka Library, 2079 Commerce Blvd., in Mound.

Coffee and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting. Donations of cookies would be appreciated from anyone who would like to bring some.

There will be more information at this meeting regarding House Bill #951 on receiving Federal funds for renovation of old buildings of historic significance.

Be sure to attend this interesting meeting.

MEMBERSHIP

If you have not yet renewed your membership in our Historical Society or would like to become a new member, please fill out the enclosed membership blank and bring to the next meeting or mail it to us with your check. Your membership is valuable and much needed to make our Society a success and obtain our goals for the past and the future!

There's So Much
Happening In Minnesota
This Fall...

We
Need A Whole Newspaper
To Tell You About It.

Minnesota's making news. So much news in fact we needed a whole 12 page, full size newspaper to tell you about it! It's the Minnesota Explorer and its free.

The Explorer has dates, times, phone numbers... all the timely news you can use to plan the best fall vacation you've ever had.

After all, it's a lot easier to explore when you know where to start looking.

Call Monday-Friday to get your free Minnesota Explorer.
1-800-328-1461 (National)
1-800-452-9747 (in Minnesota)
296-5079 (in Minneapolis-St. Paul)
Or send in this coupon. But hurry!
You don't want to read yesterday's news.

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____
Send to: MINNESOTA OFFICE OF TOURISM
240 BREMER BLDG.
419 N. ROBERT
ST. PAUL, MN 55101

A new travel newspaper, the Minnesota Explorer, is the focus of the fall ad campaign.

This year's fall campaign is big news

The upcoming fall promotional campaign by the Minnesota Office of Tourism has some great news for fall travelers, literally. In a unique effort to highlight what's new, intriguing, unusual, and fun in Minnesota, the Tourism Office has produced the first issue of a new seasonal newspaper for Minnesota visitors, called the Minnesota Explorer. The fall ad campaign promotes the newspaper: "There's so much happening in Minnesota this fall, we need a whole newspaper to tell you about it."